Manuscript now available for translation.

Everyone loves stories, especially true stories—stories of people around the world who have listened to God's voice and say "yes" when God says, "Follow me." It may be a young boy who responds to God's call (1 Sam. 3), or it could be an experienced prophet who is called by God with a vision and a question: "Whom shall I send, and who shall go for Us?"

SABBATH SCHOOL LESSON STUDY, 3RD QUARTER, 2022

In the Crucible with Christ

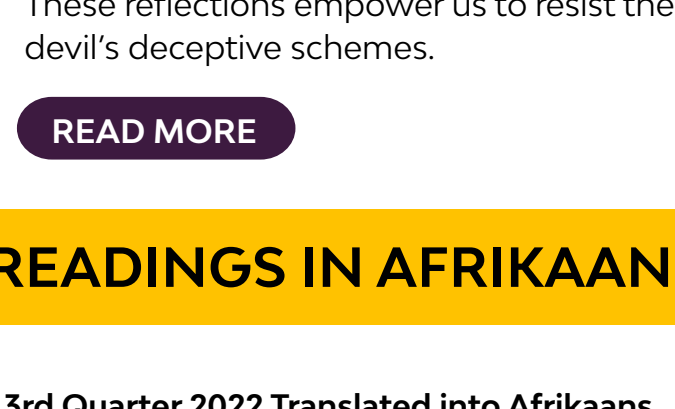

Our Creator suffered in ways that none of us ever could. We can experience only our own griefs, our own sorrows; at the cross He bore "our griefs, and carried our sorrows" (Isa. 53:4). It's the most amazing act in all cosmic history. This quarter, we hope to better comprehend our own suffering, the sufferings of Christians, those whose lives are committed to Christ.

E. G. WHITE'S QUOTATIONS

It is this increasing devotion to money getting, the selfishness which the desire for gain begets, that deadens the spirituality of the church, and removes the favor of God from her. When the head and hands are constantly occupied with planning and toiling for the accumulation of riches, the claims of God and humanity are forgotten. —Counsels on Stewardship, p 20.
